Tanja Curcic was born into an abusive home with no understanding of Jesus. She spent much of her life trying to drown her bad childhood memories in a lifestyle of self-abuse. On today's program she shares her amazing story of struggling to overcome addictions through adopting various beliefs, none of which helped her. After years of pain and hardship, she surrendered her life to God and found purpose in serving others. Tanja's story may inspire you, or someone you know who is going through the same ordeals, to find help in God.

3ABN Australia's 1 hour interview program, 3ABN Now, can be viewed on 3ABN International every week on Sundays at 7:00pm, repeated Tues., 7:00pm and Wed., 9:00am. The guest this Sunday is Tanja Curcic (Little Blue Shed). Next Sunday is Jim Ayer. You can also watch online at www.3abnaustralia.org.au, 3abnplus.tv (scroll down to 3ABN Australia), or on the free phone App.

THE INCREDIBLE JOURNEY presents: Oxford Martyrs

Oxford, England, is a beautiful place to wander. The narrow cobblestone lanes take you on a journey through the centuries. However, not all the streets in Oxford lead to places of romance and beauty - one leads to a place of execution and death. The small area of cobblestones forming a cross in the centre of Broad Street marks the site where three men were led and publicly executed. It was right here that the Oxford martyrs were tied to a stake, wood piled up around them, bags of gunpowder placed around their necks - and they were burnt alive. Who were these men, and why did they die?

3ABN Australia Seeking Studio Audience

3ABN Australia is looking for people to be part of a small studio audience during the filming of their Homecoming 2024 programs. Speakers and musicians often present more enthusiastically and expressively while presenting to an audience in contrast to cameras. These programs will be filmed during business hours, September 2 - 12. Space is limited, so contact 3ABN Australia on 02 4973 3456 to book your free seats for any one session, or all fourteen.
