Thought for the Day

The tide recedes but leaves bright seashells in the sand.

The sun goes down but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.

The music stops and yet it echoes
on in sweet refrain.

For every joy that passes something beautiful remains.

What would life be like without the Bible—only public opinion to guide us? France tried it once, leading to chaos and bloodshed. On August 24, 1572, the St. Bartholomew’s Day Massacre began, killing thousands of Bible-believing Christians for their faith. Throughout history, the Bible has been the most loved and hated book, costing millions their lives as they stood firm in its teachings. In this program we look at the story of Marie Durand, who was imprisoned for her faith in the Tour (tower) de Constance for 36 years.

DEATH NOTICE

Pastor Patrick Marshall died peacefully on 24th December. For personal reasons the family has collectively decided not to hold a Memorial Service.

Malcolm & Celina's Wedding - TODAY

Mal and Celina planned to have their wedding ceremony in the gardens at Wye Church but it had to be moved inside the church because of the rain. The church looked beautiful and the rain didn't dampen the spirit of the day. It was a delightful wedding. Their Wye Church family wish Mal and Celina God's abundant blessings as they go forward on life's journey together.
