The Incredible Journey

The Girl Who Talked to the Stars

Bett-Bett was a key character in the classic Australian books 'We of the Never-Never' and 'The Little Black Princess'. "Who was this Little Black Princess of the Never-Never?" This was a question that readers of the books asked for decades. The true identity of Bett-Bett stayed unknown until she herself revealed it more than 60 years after the books had first been published. This episode reveals Bett-Bett's identity and the challenges she faced after leaving her home at Elsey Station in the Northern Territory.

Would You Like to be a Digital Missionary?

The NNSW Conference is excited to be working with our church to help us get online so we can engage with our local community and increase our missional impact. As social media usage continues to grow, they want to make sure we're able to develop meaningful connections with our community by using tools like YouTube, Facebook and Instagram.

Social media will connect our community with us more than just on Thursdays and Sabbath.

Recording will resume very soon, which will open everything up, and Pr Nathan will send out the online training modules.

This is just the beginning of the journey, and the Conference is looking forward to growing with us along the way. Together, we will reach people where they are and help them to know their Saviour.

Stay tuned for more ...
