THE INCREDIBLE JOURNEY PRESENTS: Mary Jones - The Girl who Bought a Bible and Changed the World

Wales is a fascinating country with a long history, language and culture, and in the rugged beauty of the Welsh countryside, Mary Jones was born; and in 1800, she walked 42 kms (26 miles) from her home in Llanfihangel-y-Pennant across the Welsh hills to Bala to buy a Bible in her own language. This action would unwittingly change the course of Christian History.

ADRA LOGAN OP SHOP – Our ADRA Logan Op Shops have a fresh new look, and an even bigger purpose. - Both stores have recently been renovated, creating brighter, cleaner, easier-to-browse spaces that help us better support our community.

Our Top Op Shop now features a modern layout with $2 and $5 clothing to keep quality affordable for everyone. Our Bottom Op Shop, connected to the Community Centre, offers curated clothing, furniture, bric-a-brac, books, and unique treasures. These upgrades were made possible thanks to ADRA Australia, local tradespeople, and our amazing staff and volunteers.

Why it matters: Every purchase in our shops directly funds essential services at the ADRA Logan Community Centre, including food assistance, free counselling, emergency clothing, emergency assistance for people escaping domestic violence, mentoring, volunteer support, and hot meals every Monday.

We need your help. We're currently seeking good-quality clothing and bric-a-brac. Items must be clean and in usable condition so they can go straight onto the shop floor. Your donations make a real difference for families in crisis, young people finding their way, and neighbours who simply need a hand.
